

MOBILIZER EQUIPPING

S C H O O L

When:

4-30 November 2018

Where:

Chiang Mai, Thailand

What:

The Mobilizer Equipping School is a one month program for leaders who mobilize and equip others in cross-cultural mission.

Through deepening the spiritual life, rethinking mobilization strategies, grasping the foundations of the cross-cultural mission movement, and growing in understanding of the global needs today, leaders are equipped to mobilize and equip others in the Great Commission.

Why:

The necessity of mission mobilizers in the great commission cannot be understated. This training empowers mobilizers to do this ministry more effectively.

Impact:

+ Participants will implement an action plan for mission mobilization reproducing various proven tools within their ministry structures including:

- > Great Commission Seminars
- > IGNITE Training Courses
- > Great Commission Ministries
- > Global Harvest Prayer

“The body of Christ needs mission mobilizers who are equipped and this training helps make that a reality.”

– George Verwer, Founder, Operation Mobilization (OM), UK

The Mobilizer Equipping School offers optional Master’s level credits through Asia Pacific Theological Seminary (Baguio, Philippines) that can then be transferred to most Seminaries/ Bible Schools internationally.

Studies include:

- + Biblical Foundations of the Abandoned Devotion Lifestyle
- + Serving Among the Unreached
- + History of the Mission Movement
- + Developing Giftedness In Leaders
- + Current Trends in the Mission Movement
- + Foundations of Great Commission Mobilization

Instructors include experts in issues of mobilization. Participants are from a range of denominational, organizational and cultural backgrounds. Thai, Chinese and Spanish language tracks are available.

Partial and full scholarships are available.
