

When:
January 9- May 29, 2019

Where:
Chiang Mai, Thailand

What:

The School of Global Harvest is a five month ministry training program equipping participants for effective life and ministry among unreached and unengaged people groups.

This school provides an atmosphere of spiritual and academic stimulation encouraging spiritual growth, dynamic reflection and hearing from God that ignites effective preparation and service for the Lord.

This school combines biblical, theological, and missiological study with the foundations of prayer and intercession, spiritual equipping and practical strategies for global harvest. Located in Chiang Mai, Thailand participants have the unique opportunity to study and encounter God in the context of an unreached people group.

Impact:

- + Participants will be able to apply principles of deepening the spiritual life, and its implications in the Great Commission, into their own lifelong spiritual development.
- + Participants will be able to identify and apply practical steps, methods, and strategies for reaching unreached and unengaged people groups.

– Lalano D. Badoy Jr., National Director, Philippines Mission Association (PMA)
